

Title	WORKING TIME STATISTICS Methods and measurement in the European Community
Author	David Marsden, Wilfrid Legg, Magdalena Reid and Lydia Redlbacher
Source	Luxembourg: Office for Official Publications of the European Community
Pub Date	1984
Brief Introduction	This publication comprises an account of the methods and measurement of working time for European Community countries. It is a report on a study prepared for the European Commission by the Sussex European Research Centre, University of Sussex, Brighton, which entrusted the task to David Marsden. The study was carried out with the cooperation of representatives of national organizations throughout the Community involved with the collection and dissemination of information on hours of work. The report is the sole responsibility of the author and does not commit the Statistical Office or the Commission of the European Communities in any way. The project to which the report relates is one of a series of studies of European Community labour market statistics carried out or commissioned by Eurostat. Other reports, some in course of preparation, include: an annotated bibliography of sources of wages statistics in the European Community, a similar bibliography of sources of statistics of vacancies notified, reports on second jobs, vacancies notified, etc., and a report on statistics of lay-off and short-time working	in selected OECD countries covering all Community countries to be published by OECD. <hr/> Studies in labour market statistics <hr/> Definitions of registered unemployment published 1981 Multiple-job holders An analysis of second jobs in the European Community published 1982 Industrial disputes Methods and measurement in the European Community published 1982 Vacancies notified Methods and measurement in the European Community published 1982 Duration of unemployment Methods and measurement in the European Community published 1983 Working time statistics Methods and measurement in the European Community published 1983 Sources of wages statistics in the European Community in preparation for 1983 Updating of definitions of registered unemployment in preparation for 1984 August 1982